Aaron's Biography

Aaron Ender is an associate lawyer with McKenzie Lake's family law practice group. He offers a thoughtful and strategic approach to the unique issues in family law matters. Aaron is committed to guiding his clients through their family law cases in a high-quality and cost-effective manner, including through the use of alternative dispute resolution where possible.

Aaron graduated one year early with a B.A. from Huron University College at Western University in 2018. He obtained his J.D. from Western Law in 2021. Throughout his time at Western Law, he maintained standing on the Dean's List and was awarded the Middlesex Law Association Scholarship in his final year. Aaron participated in various advocacy contests, including the Walsh Family Law Moot. He also volunteered his time with Pro Bono Students Canada and was the Deputy Editor-in-Chief of the Western Journal of Legal Studies.

Prior to being called to the Ontario Bar in 2022, Aaron worked at McKenzie Lake as a summer student and articling student. During this time, he gained experience in family law litigation and dispute resolution.

In his spare time, Aaron enjoys cycling, hiking, baking and reading.
