Andrew's Biography

Andrew T. Johnson practices in the areas of franchise, technology, and privacy law. Drew's practice focuses on providing legal services to businesses involved in the manufacture and distribution of goods and services via franchising, multi-level marketing, and technology transfer, development, distribution, and licensing. Drew also advises clients on matters relating to cybersecurity, data protection, and privacy.

Drew endeavours to find the best outcome for his clients in the most cost-effective manner. Whether representing start-up businesses or large, multi-national corporations, Drew brings a pragmatic and creative approach to finding the correct solution to his clients' individual needs.

Drew obtained his law degree from the University of Western Ontario, where he was a Liaison Supervisor at Community Legal Services. While in law school, Drew also competed in a number of national and international moot competitions, was the Project Coordinator for the Small Claims Court Project, and received the Brad Hodgson Civil Litigation Award.

Outside of work, Drew enjoys skiing, golf, trail running, cooking, and working on vintage automobiles.
