Ashley's Biography

Ashley is an associate in the business, estate planning and real estate groups at McKenzie Lake Lawyers LLP. Ashley has experience in corporate reorganizations, buying and selling businesses, estate planning and real estate, including transactions for a variety of agricultural businesses.

Ashley graduated with a dual degree from the Richard Ivey Business School with a Bachelor of Arts in Honours Business Administration and University of Western Faculty of Law in 2020, and in 2017, graduated from Huron University with a Bachelor of Arts in Finance.

Growing up and being involved in her family's farming business and now farming with her husband, Ashley has first-hand experience of running a business and dealing with third parties, such as accountants and bankers. Ashley is able to use her personal experience to assist clients with their own business.

In her spare time, Ashley enjoys spending time with her family, travelling, playing piano and volunteering with the Brooke-Alvinston Fair Ambassador program.
