

Assaults

Whether compensation is available to those who have been the victim of assault depends on many factors, including:

- whether the perpetrator has assets;
- whether an insurance policy or a Government Fund for victims of crime is available to respond; or
- whether another entity, such as a bar or other institution may be in some way responsible for the event.

The Criminal Injuries Compensation Board may be an option for persons assaulted by a perpetrator who has no assets.

If you have been assaulted, please contact our office to schedule a free consultation. One of our experienced personal injury lawyers at McKenzie Lake Lawyers LLP in London, Ontario will be glad to discuss your situation and what compensation you may be entitled to.
