Audrey's Biography

Audrey is an associate lawyer with McKenzie Lake and maintains a broad civil and commercial litigation practice. She assists clients in contractual matters, estate litigation, employment, tenancy and property issues, human rights claims, construction liens, and various other matters.

Audrey is an avid advocate for her clients inside and outside the courtroom or tribunal. She understands that each client's circumstances are unique and will require a differing approach. She works closely with her clients to manage their legal matters in a cost-effective and efficient manner.

Audrey was born near Montreal and is bilingual (French and English). She received an Honours Bachelor of Arts degree in Criminal Justice and Public Policy from the University of Guelph before obtaining her Juris Doctor from Queen's University. She was called to the Bar of Ontario in 2022. During her time at Queen's, Audrey was a caseworker with the Queen's Prison Law Clinic where she helped clients navigate complicated institutional disputes.

Outside of the office, Audrey enjoys painting, cooking, hiking, spending time with friends and family, and trying to keep her
