Dianne's Biography

Dianne is involved with building organizational capability for a long established law firm made up of high-performing lawyers and professional staff. We invest in our people by providing stimulating work and learning and development opportunities and as such, we have a team invested in serving our clients and our community.

Primarily responsible for talent acquisition, succession planning, performance management and compensation and benefits, over her career, Dianne has also been involved with a wide range of work from office administration to special projects including construction projects, renovations and pandemics.

When not at her desk, Dianne spends her time as the Co-Chair of the Law Clerk and Paralegal Program Advisory Committee at Fanshawe College. She enjoys participating and networking in the various conferences, meetings and work shops as a member of The Law Office Management Association (TLOMA), Canadian Payroll Association (CPA) and the Human Resources Professional Association (HRPA).
