

Family Law

We focus on understanding your unique situation and goals, working with you to find practical and effective solutions that are right for your family.

If you are facing a family law issue, our team of family law lawyers will provide strategy, advocacy and solutions in a confidential and compassionate environment. As the largest family law group in Southwestern Ontario, we offer a team-based approach that ensures your matter receives the specialized advice and expertise it deserves. We are committed to having the right lawyer handle the right task to optimize your results. Choosing one of our family law lawyers also provides you with the benefits of a full service law firm. McKenzie Lake's lawyers are equipped to assist you or your business with any matter – whether connected or not to your family law issue – including trusts, wills and estates, real estate, corporate law, tax law, and more.

No two family law cases are the same. We create strategies tailored to your personal objectives and circumstances. Some situations require aggressive advocacy and the utilization of the courts. There are many cases, however, that can be resolved through alternative processes such as mediation or arbitration. Mediation and arbitration are private proceedings, and can be more cost-effective and timely than the court system. We are committed to working with you to craft the right approach for your unique circumstances.

We specialize in providing legal advice and support in all aspects of family law, including:

We also offer unbundled services related to any of our family law practices areas, which includes limited scope retainers and legal coaching. Many individuals choose to or have to represent themselves in their family law matters, but would benefit from legal advice or services from time to time. Offering unbundled services allows us to craft an arrangement that works for your unique needs and situation, where you would remain responsible for your case but would have access to legal assistance for certain tasks or to have your questions answered along the way.
