Hilary's Biography

Clients rely on Hilary Jenkins for her family law experience and expertise to assist them in navigating what can be a challenging and emotional process. Hilary's practice includes drafting and negotiating cohabitation agreements, marriage contracts, separation agreements, and representing parties in mediation, arbitration, family court and child protection matters.

Hilary strives to achieve positive resolutions for her clients and their families. Family law matters can be emotionally taxing for parties and their families, Hilary actively works to minimize conflict and to move matters forward in an efficient manner.

While some matters require the assistance of the court, Hilary also firmly believes in effective negotiation and alternative dispute resolution. Hilary works closely with her clients to determine the best way to proceed and to achieve the best results for their families.

Since Hilary's call to the bar in 2016, she has practiced family law in London, Ontario. While Hilary was in law school, she developed a passion for family law as the Family Law Student Supervisor at Western University's student legal clinic. As a law student, Hilary was the recipient of the Edna Yuet-Lui Memorial Award, the
