

Insurance Defence Law

For more than 50 years, insurance companies have sought advice from McKenzie Lake Insurance lawyers when facing a claim.

At McKenzie Lake Lawyers LLP we have a team of experienced insurance lawyers responsible for assisting insurance companies in dealing with many issues arising out of insurance coverage. The firm has represented Canadian and U.S. insurance clients for over 50 years with claims such as:

- Motor Vehicle claims
- Fire loss
- Environmental spills
- Slip and falls
- Product liability
- Occupier's liability
- Coverage disputes
- Professional negligence claims
- Numerous other matters covered by insurance

Every case is different and the insurance defence lawyers at McKenzie Lake understand that. Each matter undergoes a strategic evaluation as a preliminary step. Matters that are capable of resolution without protracted and expensive proceedings are recognized and handled accordingly. We will not hesitate to take a matter to trial if the case requires a more aggressive approach.
