Kyle's Biography

Kyle Hampson is a partner and experienced lawyer with a substantive and ever-growing real estate and business law clientele. Beyond law, he is strong in business development, having forged many relationships with complimentary professional services and other key stakeholders both in the Guelph market and across Canada. After practicing with a national law firm for a decade, Kyle joins McKenzie Lake Lawyers LLP's new and improved Guelph office.

Providing practical and straightforward advice, Kyle's top priority is exceptional service to all of his clients, both new and established. He relies on his broad past experiences to regularly counsel clients with respect to: the acquisition or sale of various types of properties (developmental, commercial, investor-based, residential, etc.); institutional and private financing transactions; leasing matters; and various/miscellaneous real estate transactions (ie. severances, lot line adjustments, easements, property conversions, etc.). Kyle also advises and acts for clients with respect to various levels of corporation transactions, including mergers and acquisitions (share and asset based), corporate reorganizations and corporate financings. Kyle concentrates his real estate and business practice in the following areas:
