Lauren's Biography

Lauren is an associate in the firm's business and real estate groups. She provides her clients with a broad range of legal services, from drafting commercial contracts, such as leases and shareholder agreements, to advising on private mergers and acquisitions, corporate reorganizations and secured lending transactions.

Whether she is advising a local start-up company or a national financial institution, Lauren is dedicated to providing an exceptional client experience. She uses the latest technology to provide accessible and efficient legal services and her focus is always on providing practical legal advice that will help her clients achieve their business goals.

Lauren grew up in Zurich, Ontario and earned her law degree at Queen's University. Outside of the office, Lauren sits on the Board of Directors of the London Heritage Council and enjoys playing volleyball, attempting DIY projects and chasing her toddler around the house.
