Lucas Rambaran

articling student

tel 519-672-2674 x7391

email lucas.rambaran@mckenzielake.com

office London, ON

Lucas' Biography

Lucas Rambaran attended Western University, where he earned a Bachelor of Arts in 2023 before continuing his studies at Western Law and obtaining his Juris Doctor in 2026.

Throughout his time at Western Law, Lucas was actively involved in the Indigenous Student Association, where he worked alongside fellow Indigenous law students to foster a sense of community, support student success, and promote Indigenous perspectives within the law school. Together, they organized events, facilitated discussions on Indigenous legal issues, and created opportunities for students to connect through shared cultural experiences while advancing awareness of Indigenous perspectives in the legal profession.

Lucas grew up in rural Ontario and, as a result, enjoys spending much of his free time outdoors with friends and family. Outside of work, he enjoys fishing, snowboarding, hiking, camping, and a good concert with friends.

Education and Year of Call

Honours, B.A – Philosophy and Indigenous Studies, University of Western Ontario

J.D, , University of Western Ontario