Mary's Biography

Mary's practice focuses primarily on trusts, wills and estates law, and incapacity planning. Her practice also encompasses aspects of human rights and elder law.

Mary is trained in both the common law and civil law systems, having earned a common law degree (LL.B.) from Trinity College Dublin (University of Dublin) and a civil law degree (LL.L.) from the University of Ottawa. Mary also completed a Masters of Law (LL.M.) in international law and human rights.

Mary is drawn to trusts and estates law as she enjoys working with people on a personal level. She is able to combine her legal expertise with a sensitivity to the emotional complexities that can often accompany estate law issues. She is adept at devising practical strategies to meet clients' individual priorities and circumstances.

Mary has attained the specialist TEP qualification and is a full member of the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners (STEP), a global professional body whose members are internationally recognized as experts in the trusts and estates field. She holds a Certificate in Elder Law from Osgoode Hall Law School and is a member of both the Trusts & Estates Law and Elder Law sections
