Michelle's Biography

I was called to the bar in 2013, and have practised in personal injury and disability for my entire career. Over this time, I learned the importance of the role of every member of a successful personal injury and disability team in assisting clients achieve the best recovery they can, through appropriate treatment and fair compensation. As part of the personal injury team at McKenzie Lake, I will work hard for our clients who have suffered a personal injury and disability, allowing them to focus on, and make the best recovery, from their injuries or illness as is possible.

Whatever the cause of the loss or injury, whether by car accident, slip and fall, or medical malpractice, at McKenzie Lake, we work to ensure that all clients and their families have the best representation possible during all stages of the recovery process.

Outside of the office, I enjoy spending time with family and friends, travelling, baking, and reading.

Effective July 1, 2021 – My maximum contingency fee rate for most personal injury cases is 30% except for
