Peter 's Biography

Peter has been assisting corporate and commercial clients since 1982. In the last few years, Peter has specialized in corporate transactions, which would include asset and share sales, financings, start-ups, and shareholders' agreements.

Some of his clients are very large, while others are very small.

Peter has extensive experience in transitioning family-owned corporations over to employee-owned corporations.

Peter also has expertise in the non-profit sector, having assisted in the structuring of two university colleges and a large public hospital.

Peter strongly believes that we should all contribute to society. McKenzie Lake has a lengthy history of giving back to the community, initially led by Angus McKenzie during his lifetime. In his private life, Peter has served on several charitable boards, such as the YMCA Foundation, St. Joseph's Hospital, and Mission Services of London.

In his spare time, Peter enjoys skiing, golf, bicycling, astronomy, fly fishing, and watercolour painting.
