Ray's Biography

In his corporate commercial practice Ray works with a team of experienced lawyers to deliver a broad range of services in areas including real estate, commercial financing, and general corporate and business law.

Ray's background in economics has taught him the importance of fully understanding each client's business in order to deliver truly efficient and creative solutions. Ray works closely with his clients to learn their unique circumstances and he takes pride in tackling the complex issues they face by developing personal and seamless legal solutions.

Outside of the office Ray enjoys giving back to the community and volunteering his time, such as serving on the Board of Directors for the Football for the World Foundation, a non-profit which he has been involved in since its creation. You may also find Ray playing and watching sports including basketball, soccer and golf, trying to keep up with new music, and searching the city for the best sandwich.
