Sean's Biography

Sean Flaherty's hands-on experience in the business world has taught him practical lessons about running a successful enterprise; and that careful attention to legal matters are but one element of a successful business.

While Sean believes that legal counsel and their clients must work closely as a team, he endeavours to manage his clients' legal affairs with as little interference with their business and personal affairs as possible, such that his clients can focus on other important aspects of their business and lives with the comfort that their legal affairs are well taken care of.

The primary focus of Sean's practice is Tax Litigation. Sean is a member of the Tax Group at McKenzie Lake Lawyers LLP, and has had the privilege of working within an exceptionally talented group of tax litigators, to help his clients navigate difficult and complex tax disputes with all levels of government, including the Federal Government, the Ontario Provincial Government and various Ontario Municipal Governments.

While the focus of Sean's practice is tax litigation, he also maintains a Commercial Litigation practice in the areas of employment and human rights law, contractual and business
