

Tax Law

Tax law touches almost everything we do in Canada. The depth of our tax law expertise provides our clients with a real advantage.

Tax

In partnership with accountants and other tax practitioners throughout the country, we can solve even the most complex tax issues. Our tax lawyers have experience in a broad range of issues, but we specialize in audit management, tax dispute resolution, representation for tax professionals and corporate reorganizations.

Audit management

Are you facing an audit? We can help establish an audit plan, minimize disruptions to your business and interact with federal and provincial auditors on your behalf.

Tax dispute resolution

We have experience representing clients across Canada in many types of taxation disputes, including GAAR cases, transfer pricing and GST/HST matters of all kinds.

Representation for tax professionals

We have many years' of experience defending tax practitioners and their liability insurers from tax-based errors and omissions claims. We may negotiate with the appropriate tax authority to mitigate the issue or conduct a tax appeal. Depending on the situation, we may also apply to the Superior Court of the particular jurisdiction involved for a Rectification Order to remedy the matter.
