Thomas' Biography

Tom Manes represents mid- to large-size corporations and organizations in his accomplished corporate commercial practice. He provides help with a wide range of business matters, including leasing, mergers and acquisitions, and drafting and negotiating a variety of business agreements. He also has expertise in secured transactions, acting both for the lender and the borrower.

Tom provides his broad range of clients with timely, practical, results-oriented counsel. He focuses on providing specific legal advice to meet the individual needs of his clients, and building and maintaining long-standing client relationships.
