

Workplace Injuries and Workplace Safety and Insurance Board Claims (WSIB)

I have been injured at work. What are my rights?

Experiencing a workplace injury or occupation related disease and dealing with the Workplace Safety and Insurance Board (WSIB), can be an overwhelming for many.

Understanding what you are entitled to under the Workplace Safety and Insurance Act is important and complex. Some issues that may arise include the following:

- Initial entitlement/cause of your illness or injury;
- Income lost as a result of your illness or injury (both past and future lost income);
- Medical and other out of pocket expenses incurred as a result of your illness or injury;
- Expenses for any future care you may require; and
- Pain, suffering, and loss of enjoyment of life or Non-Economic Loss benefits.

Discuss your WSIB claim with the experienced personal injury lawyers at McKenzie Lake Lawyers LLP in London, Ontario, please contact our office to schedule your free consultation.

When you have a legal matter and need to hire a lawyer, you may be able to pay for these services on a contingency basis. That means you only pay legal fees if you receive money because your case wins or you get a negotiated settlement. Please see our Contingency Fee section for answers to frequently asked questions and see each lawyer's individual biography for their maximum contingency fee rates.
